Nature 'Mini' Camp 2018: "The Perfect Home in Nature"

"Look into nature, then you will understand everything better."

- Albert Einstein

Tuesday evenings

July 10,17,24 6:00- 8:00pm

KOCHER PARK, 1519 SR 487, Orangeville, PA

For children K-3rd grade. Space limited, registration required. Call 570 784-1310 x 9456
Camp fee is $15.

How do birds construct the perfect nest for their babies? Do you know how strong spider webs are? Join us in exploring the quest for a perfect habitat for all creatures. We'll look into inventions that were inspired by nature, be on the look-out for critters and their homes at Kocher Park, do nature crafts and participate in our own nature fort making.
