

Women in Agriculture

Wednesday, March 21, 2018, 9am-2:15pm
VFW Post 804, 1258 Millville Road, Bloomsburg

Come enjoy a day dedicated to the sustainability of our local businesses and land and of our own health and wellbeing. Also features valuable financial advice and a hands-on product making workshop.

- 8:45-9:00: Registration (coffee & refreshments)
- 9:00- 9:45: "A Case Study in Sustainable Building" Thomas Anderson
- 9:45-10:30: "Sowing the Seeds: Agriculture Education in the 21st century" Sally Meyer, Kristen Vitkauskas, Southern Columbia High School Faculty, Emma Steely, Delilah Glessner, students
- 10:30- 10:45: Coffee Break
- 10:45-11:15: "Your Credit Score and Lending 101" Pamela Young, First Columbia Bank
- 11:15-11:45: Yoga for Stress Relief Sara Bowman
- 11:45-12:30: Lunch (soups, sandwiches & dessert), wine tasting
- 12:30-1:15: "Green Pastures + Colored Wool= Healthier Soil" Marie Minnich, Marushka Farm
- 1:15-1:30: "AgChoice Farm Credit" Sharon Piccioni
- 1:30-2:15: "Benefits of making your own Cleaning and Personal Care Products" Sheila Williams, Heather Almer

$10/person. Registration due by March 16, 2018. Send check payable to CCCD, along with your name, address, email and phone number to: Tracey Oman, Columbia County Conservation District, 702 Sawmill Rd, Ste 204, Bloomsburg, PA 17815.

Free Native Plant for first 30 registrants!

Breakfast kindly sponsored by:

www.columbiaccd.org

Free Native Plant for first 30 registrants!

Local wine tasting!

BONUS!!!!
Make your own eco-friendly products to take home!

Door Prizes!!!

