

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR

AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE CONSERVATIONIST

Columbia County Conservation District is accepting applications for a Resource Conservationist to administer the Chesapeake Bay /Chapter 91 Manure Management/ ACT 38 Nutrient Management Programs. Work with interested landowners to participate in Special Project implementations, develop nutrient management and manure management plans and implement BMP's on their farms. Conduct outreach farm visits, assist with reviewing Chapter 105 stream encroachment permits, conduct site inspections, and complaint handling. Assist landowners in the understanding of environmental requirements for compliance.

Strong communication, math, computer, and grant-writing skills are recommended. B.S. in Agronomy/Environmental Science/Planning or related fields preferred or equivalent experience. Salary is based on District pay scale with excellent benefit package. Must possess and maintain a valid Pennsylvania driver's license. Pennsylvania and Federal clearances are required.

The Conservation District is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

For application/detailed job description go to: www.columbiaccd.org

Send cover letter, resume, application and references to:

Columbia County Conservation District, 702 Sawmill Rd, Suite 204
Bloomsburg, PA 17815

Deadline to respond: June 17, 2019 by 4:30pm

